

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 22, 1818.

The Committee on Military Affairs, who were instructed by a resolution of the Senate of the 14th inst. "to inquire whether any, and if any, what further provisions by law are necessary to secure to the heirs of soldiers, who died, or who were killed in the service of their country, during the late war, the bounty in land to which they are equitably entitled,

REPORT:

That the rule proposed to be established by said resolution is the one which now governs the decisions of the War Department. The committee therefore submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee be discharged from the further consideration of this subject.
